DAY 4: WHAT DOES EQUITY LOOK LIKE?

Now that we know more about equity, let's talk about what equity looks like in life around us. Equity envelopes everything from education to social justice to law to your own family dynamics. With so many possible ways we can be impacted by equity, we decided to focus on a few areas that we all have in common: school, the workplace and our cities. Today, check out the following resources and think about ways in which you can advocate for equity in one of these areas.

Today, select one or more of the following to read or watch:

- The Difference Between Workplace Equity and Equality, And Why It Matters - Forbes (article)
- Three Ways we Can Redesign Cities for Equity and Inclusion - TED (video)

Discussion and Pondering Questions:

- What part of society do you think needs the most change to become more equitable?
- What does equity look like in your family?
- What's one way you could improve equity in your school, church, local community, healthcare arena?
