DAY 5: JUSTICE SYSTEM

Last summer, our country saw large and commanding protests regarding inequity in the justice system. From police violence to incarceration, there are many racial inequity issues facing our legal system. It's an outdated system that doesn't work with our evolving society, and it is in desperate need of to change.

Today, select one or more of the following to read or view:

- School to Prison Pipeline – Justice in America (podcast)
- Visualizing the racial disparities in mass incarceration – Prison Policy (article)

Discussion and Pondering Questions:

- What emotions arose as you went through today's materials?
- What do you think is the core of racial inequity in the justice system?
- Many people are demanding systematic changes to the justice system. With what changes do you agree? What changes concern you?
